Tricia McKale Skyles is a nationally recognized professional developer who leads sessions on instructional coaching and coaching classroom management. She co-authored the Safe and Civil Schools book, Coaching Classroom Management: A Toolkit for Administrators and Coaches with Randy Sprick, Jim Knight, and Wendy Reinke. The book is a must-read for administrators, staff developers, behavior specialists, and instructional coaches who work directly with teachers to improve classroom management and student behavior, and it is the perfect companion to CHAMPs, Discipline in the Secondary Classroom, or any research-based approach to managing student behavior. Participants in this session will receive the book, plus the opportunity to hear from the author.

This book is filled with everything you need to implement effective behavioral coaching:
- Observation forms
- Staff development materials
- Checklists
- Rating scales
- Tip sheets for classroom walk-throughs

The effective leadership of administrators, instructional coaches, master teachers, mentors, behavior specialists, school psychologists, department chairs, subject area specialists, and literacy coaches can help teachers create calm and productive classrooms.
