As an alternative to the five-day on-site Instructional Leadership Development (ILD) training, ESC Region XI now offers six-weeks ILD online courses. Course requirements involve participating in online discussion boards, viewing school scenarios, and completing assignments. The facilitator will monitor and assist participants with e-mail and conference board postings.

This course will allow participants to meet the requirements for certification. ILD training is the prerequisite for admittance into Professional Development Appraisal System (PDAS) for teacher appraisal.
